

Join the Applied Imaging Recycling Program DELIVERING FULL SERVICE RECYCLING SOLUTIONS

It is estimated that over 300 million empty ink and toner cartridges are thrown away every year. This equates to roughly 11 cartridges being thrown away every second. With our free and easy to use recycling program you can help make a change.

To get started, simply contact our office and we'll take care of the rest. Our program is designed to ensure that every component is either remanufactured or recycled.
